Description

An excellent opportunity has arisen for an experienced Commercial Property Solicitor to join a well-established and growing law firm, handling a varied and high-quality caseload of commercial and agricultural property matters. This is an exciting opportunity to become part of a busy, friendly and supportive Property Department, working alongside an experienced team and taking on a broad range of matters. The firm is looking to strengthen its offering following an upcoming retirement, creating an opportunity for someone to make a real contribution to the department and play an important role in its continued development.

The Role

You will manage a varied caseload of commercial and agricultural property matters, including:

- Commercial property sales and purchases.
- Commercial leases and landlord and tenant matters.
- Property development work.
- Agricultural property transactions and related matters.
- Building and maintaining strong relationships with clients, providing clear, practical and commercially focused advice.

You will work closely with the Head of Department and wider team, with the opportunity to take ownership of your work and contribute to the ongoing success of the department.

About You

- A qualified Solicitor with experience in Commercial Property.
- Agricultural property experience would be particularly advantageous, although candidates with a strong commercial property background are equally encouraged to apply.
- Able to manage a varied caseload independently and deliver a high standard of client service.
- Commercially aware, organised and confident in developing client relationships.
- A team player with a motivated, ambitious and dependable approach.

Applications are welcomed from Solicitors at varying levels of PQE, provided they can demonstrate a solid grounding in commercial property.

The Opportunity & Benefits

- Salary of £50,000–£70,000, depending on experience and background.
- Discretionary bonus scheme, with significant bonus payments achievable.
- Hybrid working available, with flexibility to be discussed.
- 25 days' annual leave plus bank holidays.
- Office closure over the Christmas period.

- Free on-site parking.
- Regular team socials and a friendly working environment.
- Annual salary reviews.
- High-quality work within an established and growing law firm group.
- Genuine long-term progression, with the opportunity to progress towards Partnership.
