Description

Nelson Bridges is delighted to be partnered with a highly regarded Hexham law firm with an outstanding reputation across Northumberland and beyond.

Recognised as “standout” by Legal 500 and praised by Chambers as “as good, if not better, than you will find in London,” this firm combines first-class legal expertise with a warm, supportive culture that makes it an exceptional place to work.

The firm is seeking to appoint an experienced Private Client Solicitor to join and strengthen their impressive team.

Why this role stands out:
Prestigious reputation – Work alongside lawyers recognised nationally for the quality of their advice and client care.
Quality of life – Be part of a thriving firm offering the perfect balance of challenging, high-quality work and a lifestyle outside the city.
Supportive culture – Join a friendly, modern, and collaborative team environment where career progression is actively encouraged.
Competitive rewards – An excellent salary package plus benefits, with bonus opportunities and clear development pathways.
Varied, high-value work – Advise a wide range of clients on wills, trusts, estate planning, probate, lasting powers of attorney, and tax matters.

This is an excellent opportunity for an ambitious solicitor who enjoys building lasting client relationships, managing complex matters with care, and wants to be part of a progressive and highly respected firm.

If you are passionate about Private Client law and looking for a role that offers both professional excellence and a fantastic lifestyle, we would love to hear from you.
