

Private Client Solicitor

Description

Nelson Bridges is delighted to be partnering once again with one of our long-standing clients in their search for a talented Private Client Solicitor.

This well-established firm, with over 50 years of excellence, has built an outstanding reputation across North Yorkshire and beyond, providing expert, bespoke legal advice across a broad range of services.

Due to continued growth, the firm is expanding its Private Client Department and is seeking a solicitor to handle all aspects of private client matters, including...

- Wills and estate planning
- Lasting Powers of Attorney
- Trusts
- Inheritance Tax planning

The firm is recognised for its modern approach to work, complemented by a collaborative and supportive team culture. If you're looking for a role where your expertise is valued and your contributions are recognised, this is an opportunity not to be missed.

What's on offer:

- Competitive salary and performance-based bonus
- Hybrid working arrangements
- Professional development and progression opportunities
- Generous annual leave entitlement

To discuss the role in more detail, we'd love to hear from you!
