Residential Conveyancing Solicitor

Description

Nelson Bridges is delighted to be working with a highly regarded law firm in their search for a Residential Conveyancing Solicitor. This is an excellent opportunity for a motivated legal professional to manage a varied caseload and play a key role within a supportive and growing team.

The successful candidate will handle a broad range of residential conveyancing matters including freehold and leasehold sales and purchases, remortgages, right-to-buy, shared ownership transactions, and transfers of equity.

The firm is offering a competitive salary along with genuine opportunities for career progression within a respected practice. You will benefit from working within a supportive and collaborative environment that encourages professional development, as well as enjoying additional perks such as free parking.

Applications are welcome from Solicitors / Licensed Conveyancers at all levels of experience. If you are a proactive and ambitious Residential Conveyancing Solicitor seeking a new challenge in Shrewsbury, we would love to hear from you.
